

I am totally against allowing media groups to own too many TV and radio companies. We need to have sufficient views on all news that is happening.